Bothell, WA, AUGUST 8, 2018—Pacific Northwest award-winning author Raven Oak releases the second in her Boahim Trilogy on September 1, 2018 by Grey Sun Press. Amaskan's War will be available in both trade paperback (ISBN 978-0-9908157-1-6) and eBook formats (ISBN 978-0-9908157-3-0) at major and independent booksellers with the suggested retail pricing of $13.99 (paperback) and $3.99 (eBook).

Book I in the Boahim Trilogy, Amaskan's Blood, won the 2016 Ozma Fantasy Award and was an EPIC Award Finalist. In conjunction with this series continuation is the release of Oak's coloring book. From the Worlds of Raven Oak (ISBN 978-0-9908157-9-2) is illustrated and written by Raven Oak. A release party for both will be held in Seattle, WA on 9/15, and Raven will appear at WorldCon 76 (San Jose, CA) and GeekGirlCon (Seattle, WA) in support of both book releases.

Newly crowned Queen Margaret struggles with the loss of her father as the Kingdom of Shad's army marches for her border. But when the Boahim Senate refuses to step in, civil war threatens to break out across the Little Dozen Kingdoms.

A harrowing journey reveals her greatest fears and unearths the Boahim Senate's darkest secret, leaving Margaret sure of one thing—neither she, nor the Little Dozen Kingdoms will ever be the same again. Now to secure the balance, Margaret must fight corrupted powers, old and new, and step into a role she never wanted: War Queen. Will she continue to follow the Boahim Senate's orders? Or will she break the holiest of tenets in hopes to free her people?

Raven Oak is the author of several Amazon and Amazon UK bestselling novels including the fantasy novel Amaskan's Blood and the science fiction novella Class-M Exile. Joy to the Worlds: Mysterious Speculative Fiction for the Holidays was a Seattle Times regional bestseller.
